

THE INTERURBAN RAILWAYS OF GRAND RAPIDS

The informational display wall features a collage of historical photographs and text panels. The images include early passenger trains, freight cars, and railway infrastructure. The text panels provide context for the images, likely detailing the history of the interurban railways in Grand Rapids. The display is framed by a blue border and is mounted on a red brick wall.